

Community Workshops for ALL ages

artWORKS

2914 Walnut Street, Pasadena

artWORKS is offering a series of Community Art Workshop geared toward families or intergenerational participation. The Saturday Workshop will be two-part events with exceptional instructors from Armory Center for the Arts and Learning Works Charter School. FREE!!

Saturdays, January 21 & 28, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Street art inspired skateboard decks: This is our most popular course, where students each get a skateboard deck to design and paint. Students learn basic graphic design skills, and learn how to create artwork that they will turn into stencils and spray on their boards, using spray paint. Students get to keep the board to hang up as an art piece, or to use as their daily transportation!

Saturdays, February 18 & 25, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Screen Printing: Learn the art of screen-printing, one of the oldest printing forms still around. Learn about pop artists like Andy Warhol. Make your own unique art prints, and learn how to design and print t-shirts DIY style!

Saturdays, March 18 & 25, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Life Drawing and Painting: Have you ever wanted to learn to draw and paint, but just never tried? It's time to try—join us for an introductory life drawing and painting class. We hope you like it so much you are interested in joining our ongoing Tuesday class.

artWORKS

Saturdays, April 22 & 29, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Garden Art: Have you seen our thriving garden next to artWORKS called GroWORKS? Help us create garden art, such as tiles and garden sculptures, which will be displayed in the garden to create inviting community space.

Saturdays, May 13 & 20, 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

Ceramics: Time to get creative with your hands and clay! Learn some simple, basic pottery skills and make a project or two finished in the kiln. Fun for the whole family!

artWORKS is a teen art center designed to facilitate the development of artistic expression for Pasadena and Altadena youth. It offers workshops in a variety of arts; provides space for performances and exhibits; develops youth skill sets that are transferable to the workplace and school; and connects youth to a multitude of community arts resources. artWORKS is a collaborative of Learning Works Charter School and Armory Center for the Arts that serves middle and high school students with free programming.

For more information call Marissa at 626-564-9890 or email at marissa@publicworksinc.org